'Every member ministry ...

growing to maturity ...

bearing fruit that lasts'

NOVEMBER 2016

Dear TMPC Church Family,

As the year continues to roll toward the Christmas season and the new year I am reminded of how easy it is to forget much of what has happened in the first ten months. I don't mean to rehash all the different things the church has done but I do want to take opportunity to thank God for all of you who have stepped in to the life of the church and taken on various tasks and roles and ministries for the encouragement of one another and the building up of the church.

This is not always an easy thing, like an apple falling off a tree. We are all flawed people. That means when we mix with each other and try to find ways to serve God in his local church things won't always unfold without a hitch. Nonetheless we are to continue to live our lives graciously using 'whatever gift we have received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms.' (1 Peter 4:10)

When we work in the church for his glory and the encouragement of his people there is still labour and toil involved, (Colossians 2:1). We can't escape this. We also cannot escape having our own ideas about what and how things should be done in various areas of church life and ministry. We all bring our past experiences and present expectations to this living community we know as the church. So, how do we engage one another without pushing our own agendas so hard that people get hurt as we 'administer God's grace'? A lot could be said here but a great starting point for us all is Paul's admonition in Romans 12:3. Following on from his encouragement to be transformed by the renewing of our minds he says,

'For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you.' (Romans 12:3)

That sounds like humility. Paul is able to say this out of the grace given to him. Grace has brought him down from a high seat of judgment. We all know what it is like to sit there. But we are to view ourselves in the light of God's mercy and grace to us in the Son who has seen us for who we are and has given himself as a sacrifice for our (my) sin. After we get a true measure of ourselves in the presence of God and his Son we know that we have received grace upon grace. We should then approach others not firstly with what we 'know' will do them good but with a willingness to listen and love and serve them in a way that reflects the love and mercy of Christ.

Thank you God for the grace we have received in Christ.

Thank you to all of you who continue to serve God's grace in its multiplicity of forms.

Gary and Debbie Williams are leaving to visit Abby on the Logos Hope, on 20th November. They will spend some time on the ship with Abby, and then take her ashore to a couple of European cities to give her a short break from ship life.

Abby loves her TMPC church family, so if anybody would like to send Abby a short note of greeting or encouragement, please give it to Gary or Debbie before Saturday 19th November and it will be hand-delivered!

Made it to HENGYANG, CHINA. (I.C.C.)

Hello Family and Friends,

We made it to Hengyang last Monday evening! Our planned 2 night stopover in Hong Kong extended to 5 nights, as we had no sooner arrived there when we were made aware of the approaching Typhoon .

The photo shows a happy occasion through the week, when we, along with another Australian couple (who were here long term and are now visiting again) were invited by the young men in Dolphin home to join them for lunch.

In the 2 years since the new building was opened and all were moved into their family style living apartments, their standard of health and opportunities for learning skills for living have just soared! All have household jobs to do and are active participants in their life together. Heng Shan has taken a real interest in cooking, and he cooked an egg and tomato dish and a potato dish to add to the delicious spread that we enjoyed.

We are back living in the 4 bedroom guest flat that we've rented in previous years. After unpacking on the Tuesday morning and reconnecting with our already settled in house guests, we headed out to the welfare centre in the afternoon.

It was simply wonderful to be welcomed again by the Chinese carers (ayis) and to see the children. Most of our efforts are concentrated on the kindy/toddler/baby floor and it didn't take long for the toddlers to remember us.....yeye (grandad) and nainai (grandma.) A couple of the little boys, being a year older, really relished some "rough and tumble" play with Dennis, as any little boys would. Some have been adopted since we were last here, and their places have been filled by other babies, all of whom are doing well.

Eight out of the existing 24 children on this floor have been matched with adopting families (mainly from USA) so we will be tasked with helping the children to become more familiar with western adults (especially a man) and to speak simple English to them as we play, nurture, and love them. We were ushered straight into a birthday party for one of the little girls, turning one! Typically, all the other little ones sit around, along with the carers, and a cream cake is placed in front of the little birthday girl, who proceeds to put both hands in it, then the carer spreads cream all over her face, with much photography happening at the same time! Then it is cut up and children eat some. International China Concern's model of care ensures that every child is treated as special and unique, so all 160 of them have their own birthday party, something that many children would never have had happened before.

We are again getting used to the very physical life that we live here, and have already well trodden routes to the local produce market, the supermarket, other team members' houses, and to the welfare centre, (which is proving to be a very muddy trek!) Thankyou for your love, messages and your thoughts! Love Lynne and Dennis.

PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

A Prayer for the Suffering Church

God of all compassion,
 Visit Your Suffering people.
 In the time of their troubles,
 Let them not be dismayed.
 In their oppression,
 Let them not be destroyed.
 In their anxiety,
 Let them not lose hope.
 In their alienation and wandering,
 Be their identity and home.

O God, the Father of all mercies,
 Look upon them with Your favour.
 Set Your seal upon their foreheads.
 Let Your right hand uphold them.
 Your love encourage them,
 Your presence engulf them,
 Your protection cover them.
 In their fragility and brokenness,
 Be their strength and treasure.
 Let Your light shine upon them
 And reveal the glory
 Of Your eternal Son,
 In Whose Name we pray.

Amen

News From The Deacons

CHRISTMAS APPEAL

The church will be giving food vouchers and home baking to around 30 needy families this Christmas.

We would like to request the assistance of the congregation to supply us with things like shortbread and small Christmas cakes, etc, to give away with the vouchers.

If some would prefer to donate money towards this project, that would also be greatly appreciated.

The collection date for receiving the baking will be Sunday, 4th of December.

SENIORS' CHRISTMAS MORNING TEA

Come Join Me For Morning Tea

The deacons will be giving the
Seniors' Christmas Morning Tea on Saturday, 10th of December at 10 am

Thank You!

The deacons would sincerely like to thank the church family for their contributions to the shoebox appeal.

62 shoeboxes were donated and $513 dollars was donated towards the shipping costs.

Well done everyone!

Thank you everybody who responded to the adv put up on screen a couple of Sunday's ago.

Thank You & Beyond

Thank all those wonderful people who have helped with the Charity quilts which were sent to the Farmers Appeal via Betty Pugh and the Bunting which has gone to the orphans in China where Lynne and Dennis BK are volunteering.

There were many helpers, sewing, makers of refreshments, ironing help, cleaning help and cooks.

We would like to continue with sewing friendship days in the New Year - could those people who are interested please leave their names on a sheet in the Foyer of the Church hall and we will contact them in the New Year- Blessings Gloria McKenzie (for Di, Rikki and the team).

New Chairs

If you find it difficult to stand up from the pews, Please use the new chairs with arms.

They were purchased by the COM to assist in this way.

A Note Of Thanks

Dear Kim, Sandi & the Church family,

While waiting for my operation and during the weeks of recovery afterwards, it was such a comfort to know KYB, Home Groups and friends and family were praying for me. God's presence was so real during this time.

Thank you for your gift of prayer and for the lovely orchid.

Blessings,

Robyn Marsh
