'Every member ministry ...

growing to maturity ...

bearing fruit that lasts'

MAY 2017

Dear TMPC Family,

This month I have answered some questions to help people understand a little more of my function as the Pastor of TMPC, (see in newsletter). There will be other areas of the church being highlighted in coming weeks and months as well.

So I will take this opportunity for some brief housekeeping. I have included below an email that I will be sending to all the Growth Groups regarding our Sunday morning tea. Please have a read of it and think about how you might be able to help out with this ministry.

Dear Growth Group Leader/Contact Person,

This email is being sent to all of the leaders and contact persons of the various 'growth groups' associated with TMPC. We are in need of people to roster on for serving morning tea on Sunday mornings. We have normally approached individuals and couples to help out with this important ministry. It seems that it might be time to approach this a little differently so that the time and energy spent in this ministry does not fall on a small group of people.

Would you as leader or contact person be willing to ask your 'Growth Group' to roster on for one month out of the year? It would be up to your group to arrange who would serve each week of that month. (Or to trade out months with another group should the need arise). You would be assigned a month to look after. It takes two people to serve, some currently do it by themselves. Three would make the work lighter.

We will provide you with a list of what is needed to be done should you accept this mission. It would be a great encouragement to the whole church to have your group involved. It is not a high skill operation but a friendly smile and cheerful attitude on the morning is helpful. 😊

Please contact Nola Woodward, Chris Wilson or myself as soon as you are able so we can get things in place in the next few weeks.

Many thanks,

To assert the doctrine of Sola Scriptura (i.e., that the Bible contains everything necessary to understand the gospel and be saved) is also not to say that everything in the Bible is equally clear. Much of the Bible is complex and confusing, especially to contemporary readers. Indeed, it is not, for example, as obvious exactly how the events of the end of the world precisely will unfold as it is clear that Jesus Christ's death satisfies God's wrath for His people. Thus, within the notion of Sola Scriptura is what theologians sometimes call the 'perspicuity' of Scripture: the essential features of what one must believe in order to receive salvation in Christ are discernible from the Bible, without the mediation of priests or the church.

As I worked through thinking about Sola Scriptura, I realize that articulating what it is not is just as important as clarifying what it is.

So, our next article will focus on describing and articulating affirmatively what Sola Scriptura is, and specifically how this doctrine is derived from scripture itself.

PLAYGROUP NEWS MAY, 2017

Our Tuesday playgroup continues to be busy, with a steady stream of newcomers every week. Most recently, we have been practically supporting 3 families with new babies, by delivering evening meals. We have also been practically and prayerfully supporting our bereaved family - a young dad with 3 little boys.

Thankyou to those in our church family who have happily and willingly cooked meals and delivered them to our young families.

Thankyou for praying for Pat and his 3 little boys.

We covet your prayers for the following :-

Cathy (and previously Alan) Wogandt has been ministering with our Playgroup for a number of years by serving in the kitchen. She has been an important team member and has built relationships with parents as she has served their cuppas and cake.

Unfortunately, Cathy is no longer able to be a part of this ministry because her role as Bargain Centre Manager is all consuming.

We are asking if there is someone who is able to move into this role. Cathy is willing to train and work with newcomers in the short term. Perhaps you know of someone with a heart for young families in our community. The role entails :

- *cutting up fruit and arranging for serving (by parents)to the children
- * preparing drinks, crackers and cheese for children
- * preparing tea/coffee, cake/biscuits and serving adults.
- *clean up/dishwasher
- * energy, gentleness, patience, a listening ear, a ready smile.
- *being available Tuesdays 8.45 to 11.15

▶ Please pray about this. ◀

If you are interested or know of anyone else who may be interested in this voluntary, rewarding role, please contact Lynne Brown-Kenyon. 0417726875 55452031

PERSECUTED      CHRISTIANS

“We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed, perplexed, but not in despair, persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed. We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. For we who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus’ sake, so that his life may be revealed in our mortal body.” 2 Corinthians 4:8 - 10

Voice of the Martyrs reports that Christians in over 50 countries are persecuted because of their faith in Christ. More men and women are being persecuted today for Jesus than at any other time in human history. Literally millions of Christians face intense persecution and risk their lives for the sake of the Gospel. The following are some of the ways in which persecution takes place:-

- Pastors are imprisoned or killed for proclaiming the Gospel in their churches and villages.
- Young people flee for their lives when their families discover they have converted to Christianity.
- Believers are beaten, tortured, pursued.
- They are falsely accused, threatened, abused, starved, maimed and harassed.
- Their homes and churches are burnt down, their Bibles and Christian material confiscated, and their businesses destroyed.
- They are expelled from school and college, fired from their jobs, treated as criminals and rebels, forbidden to evangelise, and forced to meet and worship in secret.

Please pray for the families and friends of the 46 people who were killed in suicide bombings in churches in Alexandra and Tanta, Egypt on Palm Sunday.

Ask the Lord to provide especially for some 40,000 Eritreans (95% Christians) who have sought refuge in Israel but find themselves marginalised and harassed by the authorities. Around 3,000 of the Eritrean men are in a harsh detention centre in the Negev Desert.

A major statue is to be erected to Kim Jong-Un, the ruler of North Korea, on the country’s highest mountain; this is considered to be a sign that he is intent on building his own personality cult, like those of his father and grandfather; whose statutes will be included in the monument. The more the president’s cult develops, the more other religions, such as Christianity, will be seen as a threat. Pray for the oppressed people and especially for Christians enduring beatings and abuse in labour camps. Pray for protection over believers as they meet in utmost secrecy.

Pray for the people of Syria who are facing not only war but also violent anti-Christian persecution from groups like the Islamic State. Pray particularly for the people in Aleppo where the Syrian regime army and rebels are fighting for control of the city.

Pray for persecuted Christians all over the world that they may be able to fix their eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, for what is seen (i.e. their suffering) is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

Ladies Friendship Club will meet at 10am Wed 10th in the Church Hall

We will be privileged to have a special guest speaker attending on this day.

Come along for great fellowship.

Morning tea provided.

Please join us for a enjoyable time together!
